The Marma points are important crossing points of the Nadis (energy channels and transmitters). If the Prana flows little, it is due to the fact that Marma points are ' closed ' and do not allow the Prana to flow throughout the body as it should. For psycho-physical well-being and organ health, Prana must flow comfortably and without stress.

What is marma points therapy | Step Above Massage

A marma point is a junction on the body where two or more types of tissue meet, for example muscles, veins, ligaments, bones or joints. There are 107 marma points throughout the body, with 37 located on the head and neck. They are measured by finger widths (' anguli ') of the person being treated.

There are 107 major marma points in the human body (Face, head, arms, legs, abdomen, chest, back and trunk) which are connected to the seven chakras, while the minor marma points are found around the torso and the limbs. Stimulating the marma points affects the chakras and the doshas (types of energy in the body).

MARMA THERAPY - Golden Egg Holistic

The science of Marma therapy operates based on the theory that the human body has 12 “ meridians ” that carry energy throughout the body. These meridians start at the fingertips, connect to the brain, and then connect to the organ associated with the specific meridian. The names of these meridians specify the organ associated with them.
