Rom 10:13). Anticipating Christ's return is a summons to action to accomplish the central task of world evangelization, as detailed in Matthew 24:14. That the gospel will eventually penetrate "every nation, tribe, people, and language" is clear from the description of the innumerable multitude of the white-robed saints gathered around the throne of God in heaven (Rev 7:9, 5:9).

Fueled by a desire to reach people for Christ, a revolution is underway. Churches are growing beyond the limitations of a single service in one building. Expanding the traditional model, they are embracing the concept of one church with more than one site: multiple congregations sharing a common vision, budget, leadership, and board. Drawing from the examples of churches nationwide, The Multi-Site Church Revolution shows what healthy multi-site churches look like and what motivates congregations to make the change. Discover how your church can: □ cast a vision for change □ ensure a successful DNA transfer (vision and core
