the new Henderson Academy. The academy, an alternative high school constructed over the cult's former underground compound, signifies a fresh start for the town and the troubled students accepted into its life-changing program. Thrust into another spiritual battle, Ted and Karen Lyons travel to Haiti for their honeymoon and mission trip, leaving behind Pastor Jimmy and the Howard women to solve the school's mysterious occurrences, never suspecting a diabolical connection between the distant locations, the Haitian Voodoo community, and two single-minded superpowers. From a rural community in Oregon, to the convicts in Cell Block E, across the miles to Haiti's Voodoo infested mountains, a new reign of evil has emerged, an evil that leaves Haitian children more traumatized than the earthquake of 2010. Their lives destroyed by the power of Jaden. Will a handful of struggling believers find a way to thwart a worldwide crisis? Or will they succumb to their own fears, mistakes, and unbelief? If the demons in charge have their way, destruction is imminent for Cherry Creek's waning warriors and the world's human inhabitants. This fast-paced tale of supernatural suspense will thrill fans of Frank Peretti's This Present Darkness and Randy Alcorn's Ford Foulgrin's Letters. Author's Note: This is the second installment in the Soul Defender's series. It can be read as a standalone, but you will gain added insight by reading book one first.

Demonic overlords command vampire armies, but they are not the ones to fear... For a thousand years, humans cowered beneath the rule of the Night Terrors, but Jaden's five-year-old sister is prophesied to stop them...if they don't get to her first. To protect her, Jaden leads a rebellion against the Night Terrors, but when he is captured in battle and dragged before the demonic queen Ashra, he realizes that he has seen her face before...every night in his dreams. Ashra is fighting her own battle for survival against enemies without and treachery within. But when Jaden stumbles upon Ashra's darkest secret and uncovers the truth about the city of eternal night, he realizes that nothing may be what it seems...including himself. "...A stunningly original take on post-apocalyptic science fiction and fantasy!" ONE CLICK to enjoy this award-winning series today!

The truth is worse than demons and vampires. For a thousand years, humans cowered beneath the rule of the Night Terrors, but Jaden's five-year-old sister is prophesied to stop them...if they don't get to her first. To protect her, Jaden leads a rebellion against the Night Terrors, but when he is captured in battle and dragged before the demonic queen Ashra, he realizes that he has seen her face before...every night in his dreams. Ashra is fighting her own battle for survival against enemies without and treachery within. But when Jaden stumbles upon Ashra's darkest secret and uncovers the truth about the city of eternal night, he realizes that nothing may be what it seems...including himself. If Jaden and Ashra cannot unite humans, vampires, and demons to battle through the night...if they cannot survive the light of day... their millennium of misery and darkness would have been for nothing. If hope dies, this time, it will be forever... This award-winning e-book collection includes: 1. Eternal Night 2. Eternal Dawn 3. Eternal Day 4. Nocturnes (bonus novella--exclusive to this collection) "...a stunningly original take on post-apocalyptic sci fi, fantasy, paranormal, adventure, and (a touch of) romance..."

Determined to solve an ancient mystery, a woman undertakes a forbidden quest that pits her against the Dark-Hunter leader and proud god Acheron, with whom she joins forces when ancient guardians and old enemies threaten both of them. Reprint.

CHRISTIAN SUSPENSE SERIES Beloved by all. Targeted by one. Who can she trust? Ritz Towers is in college, all grown up and seen by many as a celebrity. But her down-to-earth upbringing makes her view herself like any other youth—ordinary and ready to impact the world positively. When she travels abroad with a charity for a joint rescue and evangelical mission, and ventured into remote areas, she is shocked to discover how different life could be—and how blessed she was in parentage. Ritz grew flustered when she suspected that her "parent-imposed" traveling companion and childhood friend, Jaden Bailey's innocent teasing is no longer such, even as strange occurrences in their host town have her parents threatening to evacuate her back home sooner than planned. Are their worries excessive caution, or does someone intend to do her harm far away from home? Is she safe? Will she ever find out what Jaden is really up to or why he's behaving weirdly around her? “There are moments in the history of theatre when stagecraft takes a new turn. I like to think that this happened for the American musical last week, when Tony Kushner’s Caroline, or Change (at the Public), a collaboration with composer Jeanine Tesori and the director George C. Wolfe, bushwhacked a path beyond the narrative end of the deconstructed, overfreighted musicals of the past thirty years.”—John Lahr, The New Yorker Louisiana, 1963: A nation reeling from the burgeoning Civil Rights Movement and the Kennedy assassination. Caroline, a black maid, and Noah, the son of the Jewish family she works for, struggle to find an identity for their friendship. Through their intimate story, this beautiful new musical portrays the changing rhythms of a nation. Tony Kushner and composer Jeanine Tesori have created a story that addresses contemporary questions of culture, community, race and class through the lens and musical pulse of the 1960s. Tony Kushner is best known for the two-part masterwork, Angels in America, recently produced by HBO as a six-hour television event, directed by Mike Nichols to universal acclaim. His other plays include Homebody/Kabul, A Bright Room Called Day and Slavs!; as well as adaptations of Corneille’s The Illusion, Ansky’s The Dybbuk, Brecht's The Good Person of Szechuan and Goethe's Stella. Current projects include: Henry Box Brown or The Mirror of Slavery and St. Cecilia or The Power of Music. He recently collaborated with Maurice Sendak on an American version of the children's opera, Brundibar. He grew up in Lake Charles, Louisiana, and he lives in New York. Jeanine Tesori wrote the score for Thoroughly Modern Millie, which won the 2002 Tony and Drama Desk Awards for Best Musical and the multiple-award-winning Violet.

The first book in the Warrior of Our Souls series, Slaying the Shadows, is an intriguing and thought provoking saga of good vs. evil, played out in the picturesque Oregon town - Cherry Creek. Here, murder, lies, and the occult have traumatized this previously tranquil community. A brood of sinister, demonic creatures is prodding and pulling the townsfolk forward toward... their demise. Cherry Creek, Oregon, celebrates its Annual Festival under the grip of this cult. Runaway Lily whose father, the town's pastor, has been murdered and her mother has been kidnapped, has become enthralled by the secrets of the drug world. Little does she realize that she has been chosen by that cult for the FINAL PHASE of their plan to unleash an ancient and powerful evil. Corrupt law enforcement and power-hungry cult leaders pursue the girl for the FINAL PHASE. Who can stand up to this evil? Who will dare? While the new town pastor, Ted Lions, and his congregation join forces to place their trust in God, the tentacles of evil continue to slither closer, seeking to discourage, deceive, and devour. The Christians soon discover that spiritual warfare will leave battle scars. Available through Ingram and Book Clearing House. Order: 1-800-431-1579. helping Dream-Hunter Xypher, who has one month as a human to redeem himself or face eternal damnation.

Chloe Carpenter isn't like other women. She can communicate with animals. A gift she unwrapped following one of her frequent dances with death. In her otherwise wacky life, she's finally found a semblance of sanity working at the Plum Beach Wildlife Park, where her unique talents can make life or death differences for the animals in her care. That semblance is shattered when a new veterinarian roars into the park in his spiffed up sports car and sets his golden gaze on her. If she had her way, he'd roar right back out. Problem: He's her new coworker and he's saved her life twice - in the past twenty-four hours. Zane Marshall, Enforcer for the Pacific Pack of purebred werewolves, has a job to do - figure out who or what is mutilating the young men of Plum Beach. With orders to find the woman who talks to animals, he accepts a position working alongside the fiery Chloe Carpenter, a female who ignites his interest far more than he ever expected. Remarkably, she's the one elusive female with potential to bring meaning and passion to his empty existence. Problem: She despises him. Together, they're forced to unravel a mystery of supernatural proportions, a murderous mystery with eternal implications for everyone. In the process, they discover opposites really do attract. Major Problem: Zane is pledged to another woman, and she'll do anything to keep him from Chloe.

Wulf is an ancient Viking warrior with a useful but extremely aggravating power-amnesia. No one who meets him in person can remember him 5 minutes later. It makes it easy to have one-night stands, but hard to have a meaningful relationship, and without true love he can never regain his soul. When he finally meets Cassandra, the one woman who can remember him, she turns out to be the princess of the cursed race he's sworn to hunt-and forbidden to him. The two of them must face ancient curses, prophecies, and the
